Re: The Traditional Cat Association et al. v. Gilbreath et al.
SDSC Case No. GIC789066

Dear Mr. Quinn:

It appears that your clients are in violation of the judgment which prohibits TCCI and any officer, director or other person authorized to act on TCCI's behalf:

"...from representing to the public in any communication or advertisement that it is the 'original' TCA or Traditional Cat Association, that it was founded in 1987, or has been in business since 1987."

As I had mentioned to you in a telephone conversation, www.tcainc.org takes a browser directly to TCCI's website. You stated your belief that the "pointers" were not controlled by your clients since the domain name was registered by Annette Senechalle. You were incorrect. Enclosed is a copy of a record from the WHOIS service on www.networksolutions.com. As you can see, it shows that Laura Gilbreath is the "Administrative Contact" for the domain name. Further, the TCCI logo is prominently displayed next to "tcainc.org". Any member of the public who types my client's name into his or her browser will be taken directly to your client's website. This is a direct violation of the judgment. Please let me know by July 10, 2006 whether your clients will remove any affiliation with the domain name. If Ms. Senechalle is not interested in maintaining the domain name, my clients would accept an assignment of the domain name. If your clients do not address this issue satisfactorily, we will seek relief from the court. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Jerry D. Hemme
